

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

NEW SENSATIONS, INC., a California corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

DOES 1-1745,

Defendants.

No. C 10-05863 WHA

ORDER REGARDING MOTION TO QUASH

On July 12, 2011, non-party N-I-Tech, LLC filed a motion to quash a subpoena that it apparently received in connection with this action. The motion, however, contains very little information. It does not include a copy of the subpoena, it does not provide contact information for N-I-Tech or its counsel, and it does not notice a date for the motion to be heard.

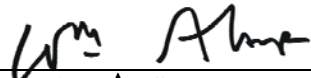

Plaintiff shall file a response to the motion by JULY 27, 2011. Plaintiff shall please provide a copy of the subpoena and any other information plaintiff has concerning N-I-Tech and its relationship to this action. N-I-Tech may then file a reply by AUGUST 5, 2011. The motion will be decided without oral argument unless otherwise stated.

N-I-Tech is advised that a corporation may appear in the federal courts only through licensed counsel. Rowland v. Cal. Men's Colony, Unit II Men's Advisory Council, 506 U.S. 194, 201-02 (1993). Because it is unclear whether the individual who filed the motion to quash was an attorney, the motion will not be stricken at this time. Going forward, however, N-I-Tech must comply with this rule.

1 The clerk shall attempt to serve a copy of this order on N-I-Tech by mailing it to the 2 incomplete address provided on the motion if a complete address cannot be obtained.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
